   (a) universal compulsory vehicle insurance coverage pursuant to the Insurance (Vehicle) Regulation, Part 6 (third party liability insurance coverage), and the Act, Part 10 (enhanced accident benefits) and Part 11 (basic vehicle damage coverage) instead of the coverage provided under these Parts for an insured vehicle by another certificate, and

   (b) the following optional vehicle coverages for an insured vehicle on a primary basis to coverages provided by another certificate for the vehicle if a limit or deductible for the coverage is shown or the coverage is indicated as included on this certificate:

      (i) extension third party liability insurance coverage in accordance with Division 4 of the Optional Policy, and

      (ii) collision and comprehensive in accordance with Division 5 of the Optional Policy.

9. The coverage provided pursuant to:

   (a) section 8:

      (i) is, except as provided in this section, provided in accordance with and subject to the same terms and conditions that would apply if the coverage were provided by the owner's certificate for an insured vehicle; and

      (ii) provides no indemnity or benefits for the transportation network company, except where the transportation network company is the owner or, in the case of a leased vehicle, the lessee, of the insured vehicle,

   (b) section 8(a) has a limit of liability of $1,000,000 for Insurance (Vehicle) Regulation, Part 6 (third party liability insurance coverage), in accordance with Schedule 3 of the Insurance (Vehicle) Regulation.

10. The following terms and conditions apply to this certificate:

   (a) this certificate is only valid with respect to an insured vehicle if the vehicle is licensed and insured under a valid and subsisting owner's certificate;

   (b) even though the transportation network company is not entitled to indemnity or benefits under this certificate, the terms and conditions of sections 75, 76, 77 and 93.1 of the Act shall apply as between the Corporation and the transportation network company as if the transportation network company were an insured referred to in those sections;

   (c) the transportation network company declares that it has a valid transportation network services authorization with respect to the provision of transportation network services and that it will maintain such a valid transportation network services authorization during the term of the certificate;

   (d) the transportation network company must comply with the terms of section 35.2 of the Act regarding providing information to the Corporation; and

   (e) the transportation network company must not permit an insured vehicle to be operated in circumstances in which coverage is provided under this certificate, if the transportation network company does, omits to do, participates in, assents to or acquiesces in anything that results in

      (i) a breach of a condition of this certificate,

      (ii) the invalidity of a claim under this certificate, or

      (iii) the forfeiture of a right under this certificate.

11. With respect to the premium payable for this certificate:

   (a) on or before the tenth day of each month commencing on the second month of the certificate term and ending on the tenth day of the month following the expiration of the certificate term, the transportation network company shall report the actual distance driven by all insured vehicles with respect to transportation network services use in accordance with

Section 2.F.17 of the Basic Insurance Tariff for the preceding calendar month in the form established by the Corporation;

(b) the earned premium shall be calculated monthly by applying the rates specified in the certificate to the actual distance driven reported and the resulting earned premium is due and payable within ten days of receipt of invoice from the Corporation;

(c) the deposit premium shall be applied towards any premium earned during the final three months of the certificate term. In the event that such deposit premium is insufficient to pay for the premium earned during any of the final three months of the certificate term, the amount of earned premium outstanding as a result of the depletion of deposit premium shall become due and payable within ten days of receipt of invoice from the Corporation;

(d) the Corporation shall refund any unearned premium to the transportation network company following receipt of the final monthly report for the certificate term;

(e) at the Corporation's option, failure to comply with section 11(a) may result in the balance of the premium for the full certificate term becoming due and payable based on the estimated annual distance driven; and

(f) the Corporation, through any authorized representative and at any reasonable times during the term of or any renewal of this certificate, may inspect the records of the transportation network company relating to any insured vehicle insofar as they relate to the calculation of premium or the subject matter of this certificate.

12. If the transportation network company violates a term or condition of:

(a) this certificate; or

(b) its transportation network services authorization;

in a manner the Corporation considers an issue of public safety, then the Corporation may terminate this certificate in accordance with section 13.

13. (a) This certificate may be terminated

i. by the transportation network company at any time on request, and

ii. by the Corporation not less than

A. 5 days after the Corporation gives written notice of termination to the transportation network company, or

B. 15 days after the Corporation sends by registered mail, written notice of termination to the last address of the transportation network company according to the Corporation's records.

(b) On termination of this certificate the Corporation must refund the excess of premium actually paid by the transportation network company over the proportionate premium for the expired time less any debt owed by the transportation network company to the Corporation, but in no event must the proportionate premium for the expired time less any debt owed by the transportation network company to the Corporation be less than any minimum retained premium specified in this certificate.

(c) If this certificate is terminated by the Corporation, the refund must accompany the notice unless the premium is subject to adjustment or determination as to the amount, in which case the refund must be made as soon as practicable.

If optional insurance is purchased the transportation network company consents to accept delivery of a copy of the Optional Policy by viewing it at www.icbc.com/optionalpolicy, or acknowledges receipt of a copy of the Optional Policy.
